FOREWORD

We are pleased to provide you with a publication which includes all bills in the current legislative session which passed Third Reading as of March 13, 1998. This publication has been created by the Legislative Information Systems Office (LISO).

The publication includes such data as the bill number, title, introducer, description, committee reports, and current status of the bill. The publication reflects data recorded up to and including March 13, 1998.

In order for a bill to become law, it must pass three readings in each house on separate days. The bills included in this publication have completed three readings in one house, and have been sent to the other house for consideration. In other words, these bills have completed Step No. 5 in the Flow Chart on How a Bill Becomes Law in Hawaii, which is included as the last page of this publication.

Wendell K. Kimura
Acting Director
Legislative Reference Bureau

Amends Act 339, session laws of 1990, as amended by Act 98, session laws of 1993, and Act 275, session laws of 1994, relating to the pension and retirement system. Amends provision relating to interest to require that, beginning with actual investment earnings in fiscal year 1995 and until fiscal year 2000, and provided that the 5 year average of total earnings equal or exceed the investment yield rate, the amounts to be contributed to the pension accumulation fund by the State and the counties shall be reduced by any investment earnings in excess of the investment yield rate. Additional amounts required to meet investment yield rates during that period shall be paid by the State and counties into the pension accumulation fund. Requires further that 10 per cent of excess earnings be deposited in the pension accumulation account to address outstanding unfunded pension obligations. Requires that, beginning with actual investment earnings in fiscal year 1995 less than the investment yield rate, 90 per cent of such shortfall shall be paid by the State and counties, and shall be credited to the pension accumulation fund. In each succeeding fiscal year, the amount of the shortfall shall be reduced by another 10 per cent, cumulatively up to 100 per cent. -- Extends repeal date to June 30, 1999 (sunset). -- HB1806 SD1
